The Anemia that Halted Treatment: A case of Complicated Hyperlipidemia

Published On: March 22, 2018 | Pages: 010 - 013

Author(s): Mark M Mokhtar*, Catherine E Lempke and Ruth Agwuna

Familial hyperlipidemia is defined by abnormal levels of the following: low density lipoprotein cholesterol (LDL-C); high density lipoprotein cholesterol (HDL); triglycerides (TAG); or any combination of the three. ...
Spontaneous rupture of the kidney consists of the atraumatic disruption of the renal parenchyma, followed by hemorrhage or leakage of urine into the perinephric space. ...