In this issue

Research Article

The Reproductive Outcome in patients having Primary Infertility or Recurrent Miscarriages after performing Hysteroscopic Septal Resection

Author(s): Ahmed Mahmoud Abdou* and Moustafa Taha Abdelfattah
Objective: To assess the reproductive outcome after hysteroscopic septal resection in women with unexplained infertility or recurrent miscarriage. Design: Prospective clinical trial. Setting: Zagazig university hospitals, Egypt.

Review Article

Sex and Reproduction

Author(s): Mohamed Nabih EL-Gharib* and Sherin Barakat Albehoty
Sexual intercourse is a union between two people of different sexual acting in a social context in accordance with their physiological and psychological needs. Sexual relationship provides a physical closeness which gives the comfort and support which is essential for all relationships.