Deworming school children in Ethiopia: The importance of a comprehensive approach

Introduction: A quarter of the world’s population, most commonly in developing countries like Ethiopia, are infected with intestinal parasites. School age children are the most affected segment of the population. The World Health Organization (WHO) recommends periodic deworming of all at-risk people living in endemic areas. ...