Giant symptomatic uterine fibroid: A rare case in Enugu, South East Nigeria

Published On: March 05, 2020 | Pages: 001 - 003

Author(s): Henry C Nnaji*, Emmanuel O Udogu, Eric E Asimadu and Emeka F Nnakenyi

Giant uterine fibroids are rare benign smooth muscle neoplasms of the uterus. They are gynaecological problems found among women of reproductive age that negatively impacts their health. Uterine fibroids are described as giant when the fibroid tissues weigh more than 11.4kg. This type of benign disease poses a great management challenge. Generally uterine fibroids are ...